The Silver Jubilee Trophy	Awarded to a sailor who has shown a significant act of sportsmanship	Connie Hill (Kent) – Connie was behind another boat and witnessed him touching a mark. The leading boat was unaware of the rule that he did not have to do a penalty turn for touching the mark and went to do one. Connie told him not to do the turn which meant she kept her place behind him, rather than letting him carry on and therefore overtaking him.
The Nuclear Electric Trophy	Awarded to a volunteer for contribution to Safety at the Regatta	Andrew Carver (Cambridgeshire) – The Northants team manager has been unable to launch and recover her boats this week due to injury. Andrew, one of the Cambs team managers, happily “adopted” the 6 Northants boats on top of the large Cambs team and made sure they could be launched and recovered safely.
